

Spelling term 6 – spelling rule recap sufficient, conscience, conscious, electrician, especially, official, special, artificial, partial, confidential, essential, co-ordinate, re-enter, co-own, co-operate, re-examine, re-elect, deceive, receive, perceive, ceiling, receipt, ought, thought, brought, nought, fought, bought, though, although, dough, thorough, borough.

Week 1	Week 2	Week 3	Week 4	Week 5	Week 6 sufficient	official	co-ordinate	deceive	ought	though conscience	special	re-enter	receive	thought	although conscious	artificial	co-own	perceive	brought	dough electrician	partial	co-operate	ceiling	nought	thorough especially	confidential	re-examine	receipt	fought	borough essential	re-elect		bought	ough letter string making the sounds 'oa' and 'uh'
'sh' sound created by soft c	-cial -tial -cial is usually used after a vowel letter and -tial is usually used after a consonant.	Hyphens Hyphens can be used to join a prefix to a root word especially if the prefix end in a vowel and the root word begins with one. Co – to do together Re- to repeat or do again	'l before e expect after c' rule applies to words where the sound 'ee' is spelt by 'ei'	ough letter string making the sound or	