Draw/Make

Invent your own mythical creature- this can be made out of junk materials, clay, card etc.

Draw a picture of an imaginary Greek God.

Can you create a sculpture of a Spartan helmet, shield or Greek vase?

Create a 3D model of a Greek landmark. Write an explanation about what it is or a set of instructions as to how you made it!

Look at the British Museum website- choose one artefact and make a pencil sketch of it. Make sure to explain what it was used for!

Use Purple Mash to create an Ancient Greek video game or animation.

Create a mosaic that would be on the wall or floor of a Greek temple. What colours and designs should you choose?

Write

Why not write your own Greek myth? There must be a problem to overcome!

Research Greek Myths. Choose one you find particularly interesting and create a storyboard or a cartoon strip.

Write a diary entry from the perspective of an Ancient Greek. You can choose someone in any role you want: soldier, mother, child etc. What activities might they do? What might you experience day to day?

Write a newspaper article detailing the events surrounding the Trojan horse.

Write an advert persuading people to visit the ancient Olympic Games.

Choose a God to research and write their biography. Don't forget to include illustrations!

Free style

Is there something in particular that interests you about our new topic? You can choose any activity of your choice- let your imagination run wild!

IT'S YOUR CHOICE

My Maths homework

Just a reminder that My Maths homework is set at the beginning of term. Please complete at least one activity per week.

Research

Make a travel brochure about Modern Greece. Where would you travel to? What could you do?

Research the different Greek Gods and create a PowerPoint presentation.

Research the types of food that were eaten/are eaten in Greece. Can you create a Greek menu? You could even have a go at making some of the dishes- don't forget to take photos!

Find out some simple Greek phrases. Can you make a poster or presentation and teach the rest of the class?

Create a presentation about the origin of the Olympic games. How does it differ from modern day Olympics?
